

THE DOG AND THE SHADOW

A Dog, crossing a bridge over a stream with a piece of flesh in its mouth, saw his own shadow in the water, and took it for that of another Dog, with a piece of meat double his own in size. He therefore let go his own, and fiercely attacked the other Dog, to get his larger piece from him. He thus lost both. —Æsop's Fables.

ARRANGING FOR THE ANNIVERSARY ENTERTAINMENT AT THE ARMY.

The committee of general arrangements of the Rock County Caledonian Society, having in charge the arrangements for the celebration of the Burns, anniversary, which will be given in the Army on Thursday evening, January 24th, are planning for one of the best entertainments ever given by the society.

Very few details have been decided upon at this time. Mr. E. M. H. J. W. St. John has been engaged to sing several of his favorite songs. Thomas Cameron, of Chicago, will be present and dance the Highland fling, sword dance, etc. Mr. Cameron is the best dancer in this part of the country. Geo. W. Ferguson, of Chicago, a professional singer of Scotch songs, will be present and take part in the entertainment. Geo. Tait, piper, of Racine, will also attend with his pipes. Other attractions will be announced in a few days, and next week the completed programme will appear in the Gazette.

It is safe to predict that there will be a large attendance at both the entertainment and the dance which is to follow. Smith & Anderson's orchestra is engaged to furnish music for the entertainment and the dance. The society will spare no pains to make everything pleasant for their guests.

DUST TO DUST.
Through the blinding snow a saddened company wended their way this morning to lay to rest at that was mortal of Miss Mary E. Gould. Funeral services were held at the family residence in the third ward at ten o'clock, a large number of those who had known the deceased in life gathering to pay earth's last tribute.

The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. S. P. Wilder, and at the close the remains were borne to Oak Hill for interment, the pall bearers being Messrs. J. L. Ford, A. A. Jackson, J. T. Wright, J. A. Denniston and J. H. Field.

A Coldwater Man—F. M. Lock is happy.
Mr. Lock stated: I bought ticket No. 46,755 through Mr. Tom Sloan, who is keeping books for Goodbar, Love & Co., Memphis, Tenn. I weighed the matter carefully, thought of it in all its bearings and relations, before I ever invested a single dollar in the Louisiana State Lottery. Finally, I have invested, from time to time, an aggregate of more than ten to twelve dollars. I struck the lucky number in the October drawing, having the money for the prize, one-twentieth of $300,000, being $15,000.—Coldwater, [Miss.] Farmer, Nov.

THEY WAVED IN THE WIND

IT WAS UNDOUBTEDLY BAD WEATHER FOR WHISKERS.

Father Winter gathers Janesville is a heavy crop. Black, Train, and otherwise makes merry.

It was the first day of winter. The almanac didn't say so, but Janesville's Oldest Inhabitant, when he went out in his carpet slippers after kindling wood, admitted the fact very promptly. There was no chance for a doubt. Winter had certainly come, and evidence in confirmation was plentiful.

Along the streets the evidence came in the sound of sleighbells and snow shovels—and in the great car-chug of rubber boots half filled with slush. The street cars bore witness to the signal service men's vociferity also, and slipped along on runners instead of on wheels.

The railroad men found proof that winter had without leaving their own runs. Several of the trains were considerably delayed; those from the south being covered with snow from end to end. On the lines north of the city the obstructions were less serious, 14 Milwaukee rain taking the place of snow.

Telephone men complained that the damp snow gathering on the wires caused several breaks. No serious disturbances have been caused, however, and the wires are now in good order.

This morning the cold wave flag was ordered up by dispatches from Milwaukee. A "Manitoba raply" is reported to be approaching rapidly.

A VETERAN EDITOR.
HENRY L. DEVEREUX, FORMERLY OF THIS CITY, NO MORE.

Henry L. Devereux, the veteran editor of the Burlington, Racine county, Free Press, died yesterday from a stroke of apoplexy. He was 81 years of age, and was living alone, his wife having separated from him. His neighbors found him in an unconscious condition on Saturday, and notwithstanding prompt medical attendance, he remained in that condition to the last. He was a native of Massachusetts, and came to Wisconsin in 1857. He published a paper then known as the Beloit Journal and subsequently the Burlington Standard. In 1864 he purchased the Burlington Standard and published it for twenty years. For several years before removing to Burlington he was a resident of this city, and was associated in partnership with Garrett Veeder.

A. H. M. signed "P. M. I. tried of living." The world is hollow, ambition's vain.
"Come now," said his chum, "I know the sympathy of all your liver—that's very plain."

You need not suffer for help is easy: Perce's Puffs go right to the place. "Friend to the blighted," I well might call them—There's nothing better; they'll suit your case."

Potts caught his sighing and bought the "Pellet."
No more he mourned his hapless lot! His face is cheerful, his heart is lightened. His melancholy is quite forgot!

—Rev. Mr. Hovey, pastor of the Baptist church, has resigned.

—The G. A. B. of this place held a social at their hall Saturday night.

—Robinson & Ballard, poultry dealers, closed up their business here last Saturday, and returned home. They have rented the store they were in by the year, and will return about the same time next season.

—The graded school commenced again Monday.

—Wm. Boyl, an old resident of this town, who resided 3 miles northeast of here died on last Saturday and was buried on Monday.

—The sportsmen north of this place near Union are having a good time hunting a flock of wild turkeys as they call them. They wandered away from a neglected farm about a year ago and have become wild.

—The next lecture in the Congregational church course will be by President Eaton of Beloit college.

PROSPECTS ARE GOOD.

A GLANCE AT THE WISCONSIN CIGAR LEAF MARKET.

Janesville buyers are now stirring about a trade and making preparations for opening up the year's work. Quite a number of sales are already made, but none of a nature to furnish a criterion for the remainder of the season. Baines & Belders are kept busy caring for leaf that comes to their warehouse to be made ready to work; Conrad Bros. are buying leaf in considerable quantities, and O. D. Rowe, Charles Monier, Chris Wulf and F. J. Coleman also report purchases from time to time. Nick Reed, Jr., whose place for some time past has been absent from the Janesville market, was among his Bower City acquaintances during the week.

In speaking of the prospects for 1889 eastern authorities are sanguine. The United States Tobacco Journal says: "The healthy condition in which the market found itself in the latter part of the past year is certain to continue for the first few months of the new year. It will not be necessary for any kind of leaf to be bought. The new crops cannot be available at the earliest before next July, and then the question arises, how will they turn out? To judge from the reports which we receive from our cigar leaf growing districts, the new seed crops will not be a solitary exception, will not reach the standard of the '87 crops."
